

SAI 001 - Coverage during transportation

This amendment to the insurance AVN 1C, cover damage that occur during transportation of the aircraft provided that the aircraft is being transported in a vehicle made for the purpose, a closed van or a truck.

Damages that occur during loading or unloading of the aircraft and during the transportation are not covered by the insurance unless the damage is caused by a car crash, axle fracture, overturning or other car accident.